Please note: One week prior to Open House, you will receive an e-mail with a list of students and their assigned homerooms. You will report to your child's homeroom and will receive their schedule at that time. If your child's paperwork was not completed by the deadline, or if you have not returned your child's 7th grade immunization records, you will not receive your child's homeroom assignment and will have to wait in line at the Open House to submit the required documents.
